

Piedmont Triad International Airport (GSO), conveniently located in northwest Guilford County on I-40/85 corridor, serves the entire Piedmont Triad region, southern Virginia and other areas surrounding the region.

Recent Announcements:

Honda Aircraft Company has established their world headquarters at the Piedmont Triad International airport and will build a manufacturing facility at the airport where it will produce its advanced, lightweight private business jet, HondaJet.

The Piedmont Triad International Airport is the site of the FedEx Mid-Atlantic sorting hub that opened in June 2009.

This is the company's fifth major U.S. air cargo hub.

The hub primarily serves East Coast destinations. Packages originating on the East Coast for East Coast delivery will be handled through the Piedmont Triad hub.
