

Scottrade Opens New Office in Kernersville, NC

Online investing firm adds another branch office Nov. 9 for customers in Piedmont Triad area

Kernersville, N.C., Oct. 27, 2009 —Scottrade, a leading branch-supported online investing firm, is opening a new office Monday, Nov. 9 in Kernersville, N.C. The new office, at 960 S. Main St., will be managed by Tim Cody.

“The Kernersville office, in the New Market Plaza Shopping Center, is a convenient location for investors living in the Piedmont Triad area,” Cody said. “They can call or visit the office to speak one-on-one with an associate, who can help them learn more about Scottrade’s online trading platforms and other tools and services that can help them make better-informed investing decisions.”

Scottrade is the online investing firm with the largest branch network in the country, including nearby offices in Greensboro and Winston-Salem, N.C. The firm offers a full line of investment products and market research tools to help self-directed investors make their own investing decisions. Though Scottrade does not provide advice, brokers are available at branch offices to answer account-related questions, provide customer service and give tutorials on Scottrade’s online trading services.

“We have always focused on providing exceptional customer service and feel it is important to have branch offices where our customers live and work,” said Scottrade Founder and CEO Rodger Riney. “While most of our customers trade online, our branch network of more than 425 local offices enables us to provide a better customer experience for self-directed investors.”

Scottrade’s Kernersville branch office will be open 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and can be reached at 336-993-9800. After-hours support is available 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.
